ACN Digital Phone Service is a pre-paid VoIP service for personal use only and is supplied in accordance with the terms of the ACN Standard Form of Agreement. You must comply with these terms including our Acceptable Use Policy when using the service. Connection requires the purchase of an ACN IRIS 3000™ Videophone. The Videophone and service require a terrestrial broadband connection (e.g. DSL or Cable Internet) that supports a minimum upload speed of 256Kbps, a router/modem and a power supply. The service, including '000' dialing, does not function in the event of a power failure or disruption. If there is an interruption in the power supply, the service, including '000' dialing, will not function until power is restored. For technical and commercial reasons the service is not available in all areas. The image quality of the Videophone is dependent on the speed of your broadband connection and will be affected by factors such as Internet traffic, your line connection, your location and the location of the videophone you are calling. Average usage = 5MB per minute of video calling. Actual data usage is dependent on the selected settings of your Videophone and the upload speed of your broadband connection. Your credit card will be billed for the first month's service fee, the cost of the IRIS 3000™ Videophone plus $9.90 shipping and handling at the time you sign-up. [¶] If you connect on a 'month-to-month' basis - If you disconnect within 3 months of activation we will charge you a $39 deferred activation fee to cover our costs of establishing your service. The total minimum cost to you is $338.85, plus the deferred activation fee and excluding any additional or excluded usage costs. [†] If you connect for 12 months minimum cost to you over 12 months is $584.30, excluding any additional or excluded usage costs. If you disconnect the service within 12 months, an early termination fee of $99 is payable immediately. [^] Unlimited Local, National and ACN-2-ACN Video Calling is subject to the ACN Digital Phone Service Fair Use Policy. Up to 5000 minutes of free calling per month allowed. ACN-2-ACN Video Calling is available only for calls made within Australia to another ACN Digital Phone Service including international video calls to ACN Digital Phone Services in the following countries; Austria, Canada, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Rep. of Ireland, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom and United States. Calls to ACN home and business services are excluded. [‡] The person you are calling must also have an IRIS 3000™ Videophone connected to the ACN Digital Phone Service. Video calling is not supported to any other network. Information correct as at October 30, 2009.
